Sacramento Therapist: "Individual and Family Counseling is provided by Kathleen Oravec, an experienced Marriage & Family Therapist. She helps couples, families and individuals with their relationship and psychological issues.

If you're feeling overwhelmed by changes in your professional life, relationships, or your own sense of self, I am here to help you shift your perspective and approach so that you can feel confident, empowered, and take action.

Together, we'll discover what is holding you back, get clear on what you truly want, and map out a strategic plan to get you the results you desire."
